二年级组： I don't like rainy days, because my mother can't take me out to the park.

When it rains heavily, I should just stay at home and play with my toys. I have many toys.

But I want to play outside.

三年级组： One night a little yellow bird hops around. She hops around the grass. She looks here and there. She is looking for something to eat. Soon the yellow bird sees a fat worm in the grass. She goes to pick up the fat worm. She thinks that the worm will be delicious. Guess what is the worm? It's not really a worm. It is a snake!

四年级组： Many people around the world have pets. Cats, dogs, and other animals are all pets. What will you do for your pets? Will you build a house for them? Will you walk your cats or dogs? Will you change water every day for your goldfish? Will you treat your pets as you are treating your family members? Pets are lovely and sometimes can be naughty. You should be very nice to them. What kind of pets do you want to have?

五年级组： Mother came into the room and found a surprise. Black spots were on the sofa. Mother saw the cat's feet. She knew where the spots came from. She turned to Tom and said, "Didn't you follow my order? Did you let the cat in?" Tom smiled and answered, "No, I didn't let it in. It didn't ask me. It just came in without telling me. I just saw it later." Mom was angry, "Ok, then you should clean the sofa because you take no notice of the cat."

Passage 2

Way up north where it is always cold, there lived a great herd of walruses (海象). The biggest was Walpole. Walpole loved the cold.

Sometimes the walruses pushed each other to get the best place on the rocks. But they never tried to push Walpole.

“It’s time for you to lead the herd,” said the oldest walrus. “You are the biggest and the strongest. Polar bears never come near us when they see your tusks.”

“I don’t want to be a leader,” said Walpole. “I want to take care of baby walruses who have lost their mothers.”

Walpole gave the little walruses rides on his back as if he were their mother. He found food for them on the ocean floor. And he made sure they did not float away on a piece of ice.

The little walruses loved Walpole. They barked like puppy dogs when he walked on his flippers and shook all over.

“Please be our leader,” said the oldest walrus again.

“No,” said Walpole. “I’m having too much fun.”

I. Choose the best answer: 8%

() 1. Where do the walruses live?

A. the South Pole

B. the North Pole

C. the Oceania

D. the Antarctic

() 2. Why didn’t the other walruses push Walpole?

A. Because he was the kindest.

B. Because he was the oldest.

C. Because he was the biggest.

D. Because he was the weakest.

() 3. Why didn’t the polar bear go near Walpole?

A. Because he was big.

B. Because he was strong.

C. Because he got the tusks.

D. All of the above.

() 4. What didn't Walpole do for the little Walruses?

- A. He gave them food to eat.
- B. He pushed the ice to float all around.
- C. He played with them.
- D. He let them ride on him.

II. Little Interpreter 10%

5. Walpole gave the little walruses rides on his back as if he were their mother.

()

6. "No," said Walpole. "I'm having too much fun." ()

Passage 3

For a balanced diet, eat foods from each of the five food groups every day: grains, vegetables, fruits, protein, and dairy. But how much of each food group should you have?

The chart below is called My Plate. It shows which foods to eat more of and which to eat less of. The vegetables section is bigger than protein. Likewise, the Grains section is bigger than the Fruit section, so eat more grains than fruits. The Dairy section is smaller than the others, so eat fewer dairy foods than any other. For a healthy body and mind, use the My Plate chart as a guide when you eat and follow these simple rules.
